FATHER OF THREE TO RECEIVE DEGREE

Twenty years from now when George T.H. Smith, of 284 Shawsheen Avenue, recalls his good old days, his children will be able to say, "Stop, Dad, we were there, remember?"

On Sunday, June 14, Mr. Smith will receive his bachelor of business administration degree in engineering and management at Northeastern University's 58th annual commencement exercises in the Boston Garden.

Seated in the audience will be his three children, Susan Irene, 5; Nancy Elaine, 3;

Virginia Ann, 5 months; and his wife, the former Priscilla Gardner of Reading.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Esau Smith, North Reading, Smith is employed by the Raytheon Manufacturing Company, Andover, in project engineering.

Already possessing an associates degree in electrical engineering from Lincoln Institute, an evening engineering school at Northeastern, Smith enrolled in Northeastern's Evening School of Business in 1952.

"I can't be too grateful for my degree, for the education I received, and the advantages I may derive from my schooling," Smith said.

"A college degree is a necessity for me in my field. Engineering is becoming more specialized every day, and with the possession of a degree, I feel I will be in a better position to meet some of the problems of today."

A veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard, Smith has been married for seven years with all of his children being born while he was attending Northeastern.

"It made things a little difficult," Smith said, "raising children, attending school, and working, but after a while I set a schedule, and I found that I enjoyed going to school and raising a family."

A freak accident caused damage to three vehicles, with a young woman driver narrowly escaping serious injury. A panel truck struck a car (in the foreground) in the rear, causing the car to travel over a front lawn and strike a parked car in the driveway of the Shawsheen Beauty Salon. The parked car belongs to Mrs. Chisholm of Hopkins St., and the driver of the second car was Miss JoAnn Janerico of Shawsheen Ave.

THREE CAR COLLISION ON SHAWSHEEN AVENUE

JoAnn Janerico of 161 Shawsheen Ave., was operating her vehicle near her home when she became involved in an accident with two other vehicles, a second car and a panel truck.

Operator of the truck was Mark Walsh of Hillside Way. He was driving behind Miss Janerico and struck her car, causing her to lose control, careen across a lawn and strike a car parked in the driveway. Owner of the second car is Leonard Chisholm of Hopkins Street.

Miss Janerico was taken to St. John's Hospital in the ambulance where she was treated for slight injuries and later released.

The Chisholm vehicle was severely damaged on the right and was taken to O'Connors Gas station for repairs. Mr. Walsh's truck was taken to Gildart's. The Janerico car was severely damaged to both the back and front. By the time it finally came to a stop Miss Janerico was in her own driveway. The car temporarily remained there.

Officer Dolan investigated the accident.

and this tag will permit the attendance of guests.

It is hoped that all persons will cooperate in keeping the area clean and presentable while at the same time realize that glass containers of any type are prohibited from the beach area.

Other plans call for daily programs at the Wildwood School, High School, and Portable Bath House at the lake. Here children will be offered arts and crafts, singing, reading, low-organized games and dramatics. Children must be at least five years of age to take part in the playground program. Also available for boys wishing to take part in baseball will be the high fields where a baseball league will be conducted each morning.

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN APPLY FOR BANK CHARTER

A group of local citizens and businessmen have applied for a charter to organize a bank in Wilmington. The name of the Corporation as submitted will be the Wilmington Bank and Trust Company. Still in the formulative stages, the location of the building is as yet undecided.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT ON SHAWSHEEN AVENUE BRIDGE

At 7:30 p.m. on June 6, police were notified that an accident had occurred on the Shawsheen Avenue Bridge.

William E. Fitzgerald of Fairlawn St., Lowell and William A. Richard Jr. of 48 Meadow Bank Road, Billerica, were in collision about half way up on the bridge from the Main Street side.

There were no injuries claimed and both vehicles left the scene under their own power.

Officer Markey investigated.

Miss Barton hopes to go on to school in Portland where she will study hairdressing.

Police Chief Paul Lynch, cautions drivers to be especially alert during the summer months. With school out, children are more apt to be on the street, creating a driving hazard.

WILMINGTON RECREATION COMMISSION

The Wilmington Recreation Commission has been making plans for a successful summer program for both young and old according to a statement issued by Director Larry Cushing. First, through the cooperation of the Planning Board the town beach will be in full operation by June 15 at which time two lifeguards will handle the duties at the Lake. Daily swimming may be enjoyed and in addition special instruction will be given for beginner swimmers and junior life-saving and water safety. Plans call for daily opening of the beach from ten in the morning until eight o'clock in the evening. On Sundays the beach will not open until 12 noon.

New tags will be issued this year and all interested persons may obtain them at the town hall upon identification of residence. One tag will be issued free to each family

TALK OF THE TOWN

By HANK FILIPPONE

Just happened to be thinking: whatever happened to the hospital that was going to be built? The last information this writer had on the subject was that a charter would be ready by Christmas, and now its June. The fact that Dr. McDougall and Dr. Fagan are out of town set me to thinking of what will happen if someone should have need of medical assistance.

The water service is now complete on Nichols Street--The Lowell Gas Company is doing a neat and efficient job of laying gas mains along Main Street--Cleaning up immediately after laying so many feet of pipe, and only tying up a minimum of street surfacing at any time--How pretty the Town Common looks, now that the grass is coming up and the geraniums are in full bloom--Nicky DeFelice's thought that a Veteran Memorial would look pretty in the center of the Common sounded pleasant enough--a ride along the new strip of Route 62 and over the bridge over Route 93 reminds us that it will only take 17 minutes to drive into Boston from Wilmington, soon--Carnival season, and how about a cook-out?--Graduation time and Father's Day, another year older--the Shawsheen River swimming hole, Silver Lake and now the pits off Salem Street--

It is hoped that the drawing for George Spanos will be held this week. All those veterans who have tickets are asked to turn them in by this week-end.

THE EASY WAY?

When our town spends a half million dollars and finances it the hard unpopular way, - by taxation, - it costs the average family about $25.00.

But when the town raises the half million dollars the 'easy way' -- by borrowing from the banks -- the resulting modern dose of inflation can cost the same family up to $50.00 a year for living costs for years to come.

When a half million is raised by taxation, it is paid as we go, once and for all. The half million dollar tax burden averages about $25.00 each for our approximately 4500 households.

When the half million dollars is borrowed from the bank, it is an entirely different story. The town signs promissory notes or bonds for the desired amount. Our commercial banks accept the note or bonds as if it were a cash deposit. The town then writes checks on such deposit to pay, for example, a construction concern. The construction firm deposits the towns checks in its company bank account. In turn, the construction company writes checks to pay its workers and bills for materials.

Unlike money collected by taxes, the borrowing process has created a half million dollars which did not exist before, and put it into circulation. This flow of new checkbook money inflates our total money supply just as surely as if the town had printed a half million dollars in 'paper greenbacks' and spent that instead.

The borrowed half million is a comparatively modest dose of inflation, but it can milk the family pocketbook considerably in years to come.

Whether it boosts living costs visibly or whether it prevents a price drop which would otherwise occur from other influences, a half million borrowed by the town is likely to cost the average family far more in the long run than the same amount paid promptly in additional taxes, unpleasant as these are.

WATCH THAT BIKE

If you are the lucky owner of a bicycle, it would be to your advantage to keep it where you can see it all the time. The summer season has hardly begun and within two days, three bikes were reported stolen.

On June 6, Alvan Webb of 30 Veranda Ave., reported having his bike stolen from the area of Silver Lake Beach. On the same day, a bicycle owned by Sam Pearlstein of Oak St., was stolen from near Wilton's Furniture Store in the square.

The next day, a bike belonging to Mrs. Wiggins of Marquis Road was taken from near the home of Mr. Stevens on Park St.

Police are investigating, but you must aid them by keeping your bike under surveillance and not giving anyone the opportunity to pilfer it.

COMING AT ST. THOMAS

On June 14, Members of the Holy Name Society will hold their Communion Breakfast at Villanova Hall following the 8 o'clock Mass. Mr. Joseph Comber of Lawrence will be the guest speaker.

From 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on June 14, there will be an Appreciation Luncheon for the workers and a Golf Clinic from 7 to 9 p.m.

LINES OF LOVELINESS

JENI JANERICO

Prettiest Day in Your Life

Of all the days of your life, there's none when "looking lovely" means more than it does on your Wedding Day! Beauty is the special bounty every bride deserves in plenty... but if the weeks leading up to your Big Day have been a rush of hectic plans and parties, you probably aren't feeling pretty at all! Better take time out for the comfort and quiet of our salon. We'll take away the tension as we put loveliness into your hair.

Come, slip into our salon chair. Feel tension lessen, even as we brush your hair! Now, tilt your head back to the shampoo bowl. Close your eyes and just "drift" as our trained fingers knead away the tautness at your neck. Forget the flowers, forget the fussing. You're in our hands now... and you're going to be the most beautiful bride in the world!

We wouldn't recommend a "showy" coiffure for your wedding! Smooth, sculptured lines that add dignity and loveliness are best with a bridal costume. But we'll see that your hairstyle has "honeymoon versatility" too... easy to manage, pretty to look at... as smart with your going-away suit and play togs, as it was with your wedding dress.

"Men who operate the filling stations have done more to teach the American people courtesy and good manners than all the professors in the colleges."

Dear Editor:

It is my intention, through this letter to draw attention to the lack of medical assistance available at times in this town. I know that many other residents of Wilmington have found themselves in the same predicament that I was in last week. I also realize that we have three very competent and able doctors in town and it is not my intentions to discredit either of them.

Following an automobile accident last Tuesday evening, in which my wife was injured, not seriously, but I believed that she should have medical attention, I tried each doctor but none were available at their home. I decided to wait until the following morning, but that being a Wednesday, a doctor was out of the question. It seems no one should get sick on a Wednesday.

I then took her to a Woburn doctor and she is now confined to the Choate Hospital. As I said before, I do not wish to discredit any of the three doctors in town but as a suggestion, it seems that a system could be worked out between the three so that a doctor would be available to the people in town even on a Wednesday. I know that other towns do this and I know the residents of Wilmington would be very happy to know that a doctor is available at all times.

Ivan W. Townley

It's a wise bride who schedules a permanent wave for just before her wedding! If you're planning a honeymoon trip, it takes a new permanent wave to keep your hairdo at its smooth, unruffled best. And even if you're staying right here in town, no new groom wants to see his darling with a head stuck-full of pin curls every night! A good professional beauty salon wave is one of the most important items for your "trousseau". It does more for you... day after day... than the prettiest dress you could pick out. And it usually costs less than a dress, too!

Bless the Bride's Mother — and the Groom's, as well! They are the ladies who really feel a need for relaxation and a beauty "freshup" just before the wedding. Make certain Mom has her salon appointment too... make it the same time you schedule your own. Then she'll greet the Big Day sublime in the knowledge folks are saying, "Naturally she's a beautiful bride... just look at her mother!"

JACK WYRTZEN RALLY

The latest word received from evangelist Jack Wyrzten in New York is that his "Word of Life" Quartet which can be heard on his Saturday night's coast-to-coast broadcast will be with him for the big youth rally which will be held next Thursday evening, June 18, at the J.W. Greer Co. Auditorium, located on Route 38, on the road to Woburn. The rally will begin at 7:30 p.m. The Quartet will participate with Mr. Wyrzten, tenor-soloist, Ken Nanfelt, and organist Norman Clayton, in what promises to be one of the largest youth rallies ever held in Wilmington. Ken Nanfelt is a New Englander hailing from Middleboro, Mass. He has sung before audiences in the British Isles, Germany, France, Holland, Luxembourg and Belgium. As a Word of Life Team member, he travels around the United States and Canada, singing in youth rallies and campaigns.

The name of Norman Clayton is familiar to hymn lovers around the world. Distinguished as a song writer, his hymns have been recorded and sung by many, and are heard everywhere. "If We Could See Beyond Today," "No One Understands Like Jesus" and "Now I Belong to Jesus" are among the hundreds of songs composed by him. America's well-known gospel singer, George Beverly Shea, has recorded numerous Clayton songs.

Norman Clayton was born in Brooklyn. He was taught the Bible in childhood. At an early age definite convictions in his own heart led him to a decision that God should have first place in his life. "I came to know Christ when I was a small boy," he testifies, because of a faithful pastor and a praying mother. I've never regretted that step, but regard it as the most important decision of my life. Good health, fine education and high esteem are all desirable, but cannot compare with knowing Christ as personal Saviour."

Devoted to the organ, he began to play in church at the age of 12, and has continued through the years as organist in many of the churches in the New York area.

A special invitation is given to the youth of Wilmington, Jack Wyrzten is not concerned with church-denominations or such, but rather with the historic Christian message of the Cross of Christ in the language today's American youth can understand. The rally is being sponsored by First Baptist Church of Wilmington which held the Jack Wyrzten rally here in 1956.

APPRECIATION

Registrar Clement A. Riley, Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, today expressed his sincere thanks and those of the entire committee to all citizens of the Commonwealth for their cooperation which resulted in the lowest number of traffic accidents recorded over a Memorial Day week end since World War II.

Highway hazards reached a peak over the week end because of the tremendous increase in registrations, the number of licensed operators, and the number of miles driven. In spite of this, accident frequency was reduced through the cooperation of the man behind the wheel, heads-up walking by pedestrians, and all-out support by public information media.

The Massachusetts Highway Safety Team--six thousand uniformed personnel of the Massachusetts State Police, the police of every city and town, the Metropolitan District Commission, and the Registry of Motor Vehicles made a supreme effort to regulate and control traffic throughout the Commonwealth under the personal supervision and direction of Registrar Riley and Lt. Col. Blake.

Public participation in this accident prevention effort saved lives and reduced human suffering on this day dedicated to the memory of our dead.

SUMMER CAMP FOR RETARDED CHILDREN

Stoneham pioneers in another step forward for retarded children. For the first time, a town is sponsoring a summer day camp for retarded children and any retarded child over six years from any of the nine communities (Wakefield, Reading, North Reading, Burlington, Wilmington, Woburn, Melrose and Stoneham) in the East Middlesex Association for Retarded Children is invited to attend.

This significant step by the town of Stoneham and Mr. Howard Seabury, Chairman, Recreation Committee, Stoneham should be a splendid example for other towns to follow in the future. The expense of this project is shared 50% by the state making the net cost to the town very small.

This Summer Day Camp will start June 29 and continue until August 21 three days every week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9-12 in the morning. The location will be the Steel Playground, Pine St. Stoneham. Any questions on transportation can be answered by Mrs. Michael Balog, 43 Gleason Rd., REading 2-0683.

The staff will include, Director, Mrs. Warren B. Dawe, 112 Butters Row, Wilmington.

BILLERICA WOMAN ESCAPES INJURY

A passing motorist was at first very apprehensive about stopping upon the signal of a disheveled looking lady at 12:30 a.m. on June 3. The driver, operating his vehicle along Shawsheen Ave., spotted Ruth E. LeBrun of 279 Andover Rd., Billerica shortly after her car had gone out of control and turned over near the intersection of Shawsheen Ave. and Nichols Street.

Mrs. LeBrun was headed toward Billerica when, due to wet pavement, her car went out of control, struck the dirt and came to a stop, lying on its side with its roof embedded in a group of trees. She crawled from the vehicle through the broken windshield and wandered, dazedly through a swampy area before finally making her way back to the road where she was picked up and taken to police headquarters.

Mrs. LeBrun had miraculously escaped without injury, but her car was considered a total loss. It was towed to Cain's Garage.

Officer Kelley of the Wilmington Police drove Mrs. LeBrun home in the police cruiser.

GIRL SCOUT CAMP NEWS

Ten local girls have been selected for campership at Camp Wigisadca in July.

They have been picked for their cooperation in group activities, to get along with others, enjoyment of the outdoor program, initiative, resourcefulness and general cheerfulness.

These camperships are financed from the profits of their recent cookie sale, plus the generosity of the Lions Club to sponsor three of the ten.

The ten chosen are as follows: Alice Anderson, Katherine Ballou, Betsy Ann Bowser, Linda Corcoran, Nancy Miller, Carmela Ruggiero, Sheila Johnson, Sharon Johnson, Maxine Munnin and Dorothy Suggs.

Some of the units are not quite full, so there will be room for a few more campers. Any girl scout or brownie desiring to attend should fill in registration blank found in camp folder and send to Mrs. Charles Crotty, Silverhurst Ave. Wilmington.

Camp days are July 6 to 9 and 13 to 16.

THE OTHER DAY

We got to talking about Chain Reaction, and it came out that the first thing most people think about when chain reaction is mentioned is atomic energy, which is, of course, the ultimate in chain reaction. The simplest chain reaction is the one set in motion by each one of our own actions in life. We hadn't thought of it that way before, but when you stop to think about it, there just isn't any one thing we do as individuals that doesn't set up some kind of chain reaction. It's almost frightening to think about the long chain of bad events that can start from just one bad action.

So, for our part, we strongly renew our resolution to try to start only the best kind of chain reactions, and we hope our business actions reach out to each one of you with the best kind of effect.
